

North Carolina State University
Application for In-State Tuition for North Carolina Teachers' Certification and Professional Development

Under North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-143.5 certain North Carolina teachers may be eligible for the in-state tuition rate for courses taken for teacher certification or professional development as a teacher. To be eligible, the applicant must meet the following criteria:

1. An applicant for the benefit of G.S. 116-143.5 must be a teacher or other person paid on the North Carolina teachers salary schedule incident to full-time employment by a North Carolina public school. "Full-time employment" means employment under which the employee's aggregate of duties qualifies applicant for membership in the Teachers and State Employees Retirement System (TSERS) or would qualify the applicant if he/she were employed on a permanent basis.
2. The applicant must provide a written declaration from the principal of his/her employing school verifying the applicant's employment status as a full-time employee paid on the North Carolina teachers salary schedule, and that any course for which the tuition benefit may be received must be relevant to teacher licensure or professional development as a teacher.
3. The applicant must be a North Carolina resident (domiciliary) of any duration, as determined by G.S. 116-143 and A Manual to Assist the Public Higher Education Institutions of North Carolina in the Matter of Student Residence Classification for Tuition Purposes. A copy of the Manual is on reserve in the Library and in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.
4. The applicant must be found to have established North Carolina legal residence prior to commencement of the course(s) for which the benefit of G.S. 16.143.5 is sought.
5. Application for the tuition benefit will be permitted with respect only to academic terms commencing on or after the date on which the applicant delivers, in proper order, a completed Application and all supporting documentation.
