Residence – and – Tuition Status Application

Under North Carolina law, bona fide legal residents (domicillaries) of North Carolina are eligible for a lower tuition rate than non-residents. Copies of the applicable law and of implementing University regulations are available for inspection in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, 203 Peele Hall. In essence, the controlling North Carolina statute (G.S. 116-143.1) requires: "To qualify as a resident for tuition purposes, a person must have established legal residence (domicile) in North Carolina and maintained that legal residence for at least 12 months immediately prior to his or her classification as a resident for tuition purposes." G.S. 116-143.1 also sets forth statutory definitions, rules, and special provisions for determining resident status for tuition purposes. The residence Manual, located in the Admissions Office, should be consulted for these statutory and regulatory conditions.

The law requires that prior to the term of enrollment every student admitted or readmitted to the University must be classified as a resident or non-resident for tuition purposes. To be classified a resident for tuition purposes, you must furnish such evidence as the University may require to enable it to make such classification. If you claim North Carolina residence for tuition purposes, you must file this application promptly and before the close of the term for which you claim such residence.
