First in the Pack: First-Generation Student Panel Discussion

Park Shops, Room 200
1:00pm - 2:30pm

First-generation college students are students who are the first in their families to go to college for a bachelor's degree. First-generation college students are trailblazers within their communities and at NC State. Come meet other staff, students, and faculty who are also trailblazers at NC State at the First in the Pack Panel Discussion. Learn from them the support programs and campus resources that will enhance your experience as a first-generation college student.

Diversity Matters!

Witherspoon Student Center, Room 356
(30 min. sessions) 10:45am, 12:15pm, 11:30am (en Español)

Preparing today's college students to live and work in multicultural and global settings is an imperative and essential 21st century skill. Diversity of people and perspectives drives innovation, while enhancing student success, academic excellence, professional, social and cultural engagement. Attend this session to learn how NC State supports the many facets of diversity, while helping students both establish and expand their sense of community as a member of the Wolfpack Family.

University Housing

At NC State, we not only “Think and Do,” we “Live and Learn” on campus. Meet our intrepid students and Living and Learning Village residents from across campus during residence hall tours.

Learn more about the Living and Learning Village experience, with representatives located on Stafford Commons. Join Residence Hall tours starting every 15 minutes from Stafford Commons outside Talley Student Union. Tours will run from 10:00am until 1:00pm.

Guided tours of both suite-style and hall-style communities will be available on a rotating schedule. Specific community tour times may be found at facebook.com/NCStateHousing.

Virtual tours and photos of all Residence Halls and Apartments are available at housing.dasa.ncsu.edu.
